Nygren Announces Staff for 2015

Madison – Today, State Representative John Nygren (R-Marinette) issued the following statement on the announcement of his staff for the upcoming session. Nygren will continue his duties as the Co-Chair of the Wisconsin State Legislature's Joint Committee on Finance on January 5th.

"I am pleased to announce my staff, who will help advance the Assembly Republicans' pro-jobs, pro-growth agenda this session. As the Assembly Co-Chair of Joint Finance, I will rely on my team's knowledge and experience as we guide the budget process and work to put forth a responsible spending plan that protects the taxpayers and promotes economic prosperity."

Jeff Schoenfeldt, Chief of Staff - A Peshtigo native, Schoenfeldt has over 20 years of combined Wisconsin state legislative, congressional, campaign, and consulting experience. During his time in the legislature, Schoenfeldt was a top aide to Rep. John Gard when he served as both Chairman of the Finance Committee and Speaker of the Assembly. Schoenfeldt also worked on Capitol Hill as a staff assistant for former Congressman Toby Roth.

Jennifer Malcore, Budget and Policy Analyst - Malcore, originally from Green Bay, has worked previously in Assembly leadership, handling communications and policy matters for the former Caucus Chair, Representative Joan Ballweg. Malcore, a UW Green Bay graduate, worked for the Brown County Sheriff's Department Jail Division prior to coming to the legislature.

Caroline Krause, Communications Director – Krause continues on with Rep. Nygren, having worked as his Legislative Aide last session. A UW Madison graduate, Krause has campaign experience and previously worked as an aide to Representative Duey Stroebel.

Chris Borgerding, Legislative Aide – Borgerding joins the Nygren office from the Wisconsin Credit Union League, where he worked as a government affairs assistant. Borgerding, a UW Madison graduate, has campaign experience and previously worked as an aide to former Representative Jeff Stone.
